BUILDINGLargest and Oldest Furniture House in the Islands*HIGH GRADE FURNITURE!*WEATHERED OAK DINING SET

In one of our windows we have on display one of the finest and most unique dining room sets ever brought to Honolulu. It is all of weathered oak and consists of a very large buffet, oval glass china closet, table and chairs. Fancy dining sets now contain but eight chairs and two arm chairs to match.

MORRIS CHAIRS

We are showing a large line of new shapes of Morris Chairs, received by the Alameda. They are in polished oak, weathered oak, imitation mahogany, and plain oak. Cushions of all kinds.

WEATHERED OAK ROCKERS

Our new line of weathered oak rockers is made up of Limbert and Karpen Art Goods, the kind that is now being extensively advertised and used in the East. The seats and backs of these are made of Spanish leather.

FEATHER PILLOWS

In addition to our own fine line of live geese feather pillows we have added a line of lighter feathers, which of course are lighter in price.

PARK BILL*Lands Near Honolulu
Set Aside for Public Use.

The text of the Park Reserve Act, introduced in the Senate by Dickey of Maui some days ago, is printed herewith. It is a bill in which a great deal of public interest has been expressed, the tracts reserved being lands whose setting aside for park purposes will be of the utmost importance to the future growth of Honolulu:

Section 1. The tracts of public lands hereinafter described are hereby reserved from sale and set apart for use as public parks:

1. That certain tract of land situated on Tantalus Heights, Oahu, bounded on the north by Kalawahine, on the east by Manoa Valley, and on the southwest by a straight line drawn from the north corner of Grant Number 4589 south 43 deg. east to the edge of Manoa valley; as more fully described in Registered Map Number 1584 on file in the Government Survey office; except such portions of said tract as are now the property of other parties.

2. That certain tract of land situated on Punchbowl Heights, Oahu, and bounded on the south and west by Prospect street and its proposed extension to Punchbowl road and Makiki road, on the north by Punchbowl road and on the east by Makiki road, and more fully described in C. S. F. Government Survey on file in the Government Survey office, subject to existing leases; excepting such portions of said tract as are now the property of other parties.

3. That certain tract of land situated in Waikiki, Oahu, known as Lots 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, and 129 and bounded on the east by Main avenue, on the south by land of W. G. Irwin, on the west by the sea and on the north by land of the Estate of S. N. Castle; more fully described in Registered Map Number 1079 on file in the Government Survey office; subject to existing leases.

4. That certain tract of land situated at Waikiki, Oahu, known as Lots 135, 136, 137, 138, and 139, bounded on the east by Main avenue, on the south by land of A. Gartenberg, on the west by the sea and on the north by land of H. M. von Holt; more fully described in said Registered Map Number 1079, on file in the Government Survey office; subject to existing leases.

Section 2. It shall not be lawful for the Commissioner of Public Lands or the Superintendent of Public Works to sell or lease any of the above described tracts or to extend the leases now in force affecting them.

VERY PLEASANT TIME AT WAHIAWA COLONY

Wahiawa, Feb. 26.—The parents and others of Wahiawa colony were given an enjoyable evening's entertainment on the 25th inst., by Mrs. Frain and her pupils.

The program as carried out was of more than ordinary merit, and all who listened to it were warm in their praise of the teacher, for the thorough manner in which she trained the children, and for the patriotic lessons instilled into their minds. The spirit with which all entered into their various parts, showed that they had not only enjoyed it, but that seeds of the finer quality of true patriotism had fallen in fertile soil.

Mrs. Frain not only provided an enjoyable evening's entertainment to all, but gave the children a lesson that will leave its mark on their future lives as citizens.

Special mention is due Miss May Thomas, who instructs the school in the Tonic-Sol-Fa system. Although, but recently engaged by Mrs. Frain to give the children lessons in this system, their singing showed the care of their training, and great improvement.

The following is the program rendered by the pupils, which was added to by the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by Mr. Chas. Stewart McMillan, who was encored and responded with "Sleep in the Deep," both number being greatly enjoyed by the audience. Mrs. Frain added a fitting closing to the patriotic services of the evening by reading Markham's poem, "Lincoln the Man of the People."

A PARENT.

Henry Kapea, the absconding clerk of the Hawaiian Trust Company, is believed by the officials to be in London, where he has become indebted to the proprietor of the Hotel Brunswick for 200 pounds sterling. It is probable that an effort will be made by the officials to extradite the young man, if it should prove to be really Kapea. The grand jury yesterday returned an indictment in a special report to Judge De Bolt, and it was reported about the judiciary building that Kapea was the man indicted.
